

The City of Boardman Finance Department is charged with administering all financial affairs of the City consistent with federal, state, and municipal laws and regulations, as well as generally accepted accounting principles. The Finance Director works under the supervision of the City Manager, and manages all functions of the finance department.

The contents of the website are designed to provide an overview of the city's finances and services related to finance. Questions concerning any of the financial information provided on this website or requests for additional financial information should be addressed to the Finance Department.

Functions:

- Develops and maintains the city's accounting system and standards
- Makes budget recommendations and revenue estimates
- Assists with tax and financial planning
- Invests the city's funds
- Functions as the city's treasury by collecting revenues and accounts receivables and controlling the disbursement of funds
- Oversees audits of the city's financial records
- Records and tracks the city's fixed assets and capital property
- Provides financial services and support to all departments, boards, and commissions of the city

Services:

- Accounting
- Financial Reporting
- Budgeting
- Treasury
- Investment and Debt Management

Thank you,

Marta Barajas

Finance Director

View PDF